

CIVIL RIGHTS ADVISORY COMMITTEE VACANCY ANNOUNCEMENTS

The Oklahoma Civil Rights Advisory Committee announces three vacancies: the Black Emphasis Program Manager (BEPM); the Asian Pacific Islander Emphasis Program Manager (APIEPM); and one Zone Representative position.

The Special Emphasis Program Managers (SEPM's) are an integral part of the overall Equal Opportunity Program in NRCS. The positions are collateral duty with appointments running for three years, beginning January 1, 2003.

The Zone Representative positions are an integral part of Oklahoma's Civil Rights Advisory Committee. These positions are also collateral duty and appointments are for three years, beginning January 1, 2003.

Any permanent NRCS employees are eligible to apply. The committee consists of representatives of minority and non-minority groups, men, women, all grade levels, classification series, and geographical regions.

Anyone interested in these positions should send the following information to the State Conservationist. You may fax to (405) 742-1126. The deadline for sending in your application is December 10, 2002.
